Centre for Sustainable Development (Censud) in association with Gohar Administration organised a one day Training Workshop for PIO/APIO's of Gohar Block. About 60 officials from various departments were imparted training on Right to Information Act 2005. Sunil Sharma, SDM Gohar while presiding over the workshop highlighted the importance of Right to Information in bringing about transparency in governance. He said that the public has every right to know the way public funds are spent and PIO's and APIO's should assist the public in their quest for information. S. N. Gandotra, Master Trainer RTI told participants about various aspects of RTI. Jitender Verma, President Censud discussed various case studies with the participants to give a better understanding of the RTI Act.

Posted in: Censud News, Right To Information | | With 0 comments