Centre for Sustainable Development and Oasis-the Student Committee of JNGEC (Jawahar Lal Nehru Government Engineering College) are jointly organising various activities under Personality Development Program. Various studies have pointed out that students in Himachal lack the required Soft Skills to enable them to get suitable placements after completing their course. Under PDP various competitions like Declamation, Extempore, Quiz and Group Discussion were organised in the college campus.